

Complaints Service Standard

A complaint is defined as:

“An expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the organisation, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting an individual resident or group of residents.”

Residents can make a complaint via:

- Mybdht online customer portal
- Phone
- Email
- By letter
- Facebook or X
- Text
- In person
- Complaint form

You can appoint a representative to deal with your complaint on your behalf and be represented or accompanied at any meeting with bdht.

Our targets:

- To acknowledge complaints within five working days
- To investigate and respond to Stage 1 complaints within 10 working days of the complaint being acknowledged
- To review and respond to Stage 2 complaints within 20 working days of the Stage 2 acknowledgement date
- To provide reasonable notice if your complaint response will be delayed and explain the reason for the delay

You can contact the Housing Ombudsman Service for advice at any point during the complaint investigation process or even before the complaint process begins.

The Housing Ombudsman Service contact details are:

Complaints Process

We want to learn from our mistakes, and we value and welcome complaints when we have failed to deliver an acceptable service.

When an expression of dissatisfaction is received and bdht is unable to resolve the issue quickly and to your satisfaction, a formal complaint will be logged at Stage 1.

The formal complaint process comprises of two stages:

Stage 1 – Investigation by a Service Manager or Head of Service

- Bdht will send you an acknowledgement letter within five working days, confirming the name of the Manager or Head of Service investigating your complaint and the target response date.
- The investigating Manager will offer to visit you to gain a full understanding of your complaint, you do not have to meet with us if you do not want to.
- Upon completion of a full investigation, a response letter will be sent to you, outlining:
 - the outcome of the investigation,
 - the reasons for the decision,
 - details of any remedy offered to put things right,
 - details of any outstanding actions,
 - the name of the officer who is responsible for implementing any actions, and
 - any lessons learnt.
- If you are dissatisfied with the response at Stage 1 of the complaints process, you can request for your complaint to be reviewed at Stage 2.

Stage 2 – Review by a Director

- The purpose of Stage 2 is to review the Stage 1 investigation and outcome.
- If you ask to escalate your complaint to Stage 2, we will write to you within five working days to acknowledge that your complaint has escalated.
- We will let you know the name of the Director investigating your complaint and the target date for completing the review.
- The investigating Director will review the Stage 1 investigation and consider any additional information provided by you.
- Upon completion of a full review, the investigating Director will write to you with the outcome.

If you remain dissatisfied

If you remain dissatisfied with the outcome at Stage 2, you can progress your complaint to Housing Ombudsman Service. The contact details for the Housing Ombudsman Service are on the first page of this document and will be included in our complaint letters.

Exclusions

There may be occasions where bdht is unable to handle your enquiry as a formal complaint. These circumstances are outlined in our Complaints Policy which is available on our website www.bdht.co.uk You can also request a copy by calling us on 0800 0850 160
