

Self-Assessment Form 1st April 2024

This self-assessment form should be completed by the complaints officer and discussed at the landlord's governing body annually.

Evidence should be included to support all statements with additional commentary as necessary.

Explanations must also be provided where a mandatory 'must' requirement is not met to set out the rationale for the alternative approach adopted and why this delivers a better outcome.

Section 1 - Definition of a complaint

| Code section | Code requirement   | Comply: Yes/No | Evidence, commentary and any explanations  |
|--------------|--|----------------|--|
| 1.2          | A complaint must be defined as:'an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the organisation, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting an individual resident or group of residents.'  | Yes            | See paras 3.1 and 5.5.1 Complaints and Compensation Policy as agreed by Board March 2024 |
| 1.3          | The resident does not have to use the word 'complaint' for it to be treated as such. Whenever a resident expresses dissatisfaction landlords must give them a choice to make a complaint. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must still be handled in line with the landlord's complaints policy.                     | Yes            | See paras 5.5.1 and 5.5.2 Complaints and Compensation Policy                             |
| 1.4          | Landlords must recognise the difference between a service request and a complaint. This must be set out in their complaints policy. A service request is a request from a resident to the landlord requiring action to be taken to put something right. Service requests are not complaints, but must be recorded, monitored and reviewed regularly. | Yes            | See para 5.7.2, 5.7.3 Complaints and Compensation Policy                                 |
| 1.5          | A complaint must be raised when the resident expresses dissatisfaction with the response to  | Yes            | 5.7.4 Complaints and Compensation Policy   |

|------------|--|-----|--|
|            | their service request, even if the handling of the service request remains ongoing. Landlords must not stop their efforts to address the service request if the resident complains.  |     |  |
| 1.6 | An expression of dissatisfaction with services made through a survey is not defined as a complaint, though wherever possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue a complaint if they wish to. Where landlords ask for wider feedback about their services, they also must provide details of how residents can complain. | Yes | Survey feedback is collated externally by MEL and in accordance with GDPR reported back anonymously, unless the respondent provides explicit permission for their responses to be shared with bdht. Where respondents do so any expressions of dissatisfaction are sent by email to the service manager and Head of Governance. When such notifications are received contact is logged on the QL management system for the service manager to contact the customer. Managers are instructed to advise the customer of their option to escalate as a complaint if they wish. Mel scripts and questionnaires have been updated to include a strap line to advise customers of how to access the complaints process if they are dissatisfied. |

Section 2: Exclusions

| Code section | Code requirement   | Comply: Yes/No | Evidence, commentary and any explanations             |
|---------------------|---|-----------------------|--|
| 2.1                 | Landlords must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so. If landlords decide not to accept a complaint they must be able to evidence their reasoning. Each complaint must be considered on its own merits | Yes                   | See Policy Exclusions 5.6 Complaints and Compensation Policy |
| 2.2                 | A complaints policy must set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered as a complaint or escalated, and these  | Yes                   | 5.6 complaints and compensation policy                       |

|     | circumstances must be fair and reasonable to residents. Acceptable exclusions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The issue giving rise to the complaint occurred over twelve months ago.</li> <li>• Legal proceedings have started. This is defined as details of the claim, such as the Claim Form and Particulars of Claim, having been filed at court. 19</li> <li>• Matters that have previously been considered under the complaints policy.</li> </ul> |     |  |
| 2.3 | Landlords must accept complaints referred to them within 12 months of the issue occurring or the resident becoming aware of the issue, unless they are excluded on other grounds. Landlords must consider whether to apply discretion to accept complaints made outside this time limit where there are good reasons to do so.   | Yes | 5.6.8 complaint and compensation policy  |
| 2.4 | If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, an explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman. If the Ombudsman does not agree that the exclusion has been fairly applied, the Ombudsman may tell the landlord to take on the complaint.   | Yes | 5.6.2 complaints and compensation policy |
| 2.5 | Landlords must not take a blanket approach to excluding complaints; they must consider the individual circumstances of each complaint.   | Yes | 5.6.3 complaints and compensation policy |

Section 3 - Accessibility and awareness

| Code section | Code requirement  | Comply: Yes/No | Evidence, commentary and any explanations  |
|--------------|---|----------------|--|
| 3.1          | Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which they can make a complaint. Landlords must consider their duties under the Equality Act 2010 and anticipate the needs and reasonable adjustments of residents who may need to access the complaints process. | Yes            | See para 5.3 Complaints &amp; Compensation Policy. Detail included on bdht website. See Complaint Service Standard. Promotion of complaints is also promoted via our social media channels on a rolling monthly basis. See paras 4.1.8 and 4.1.9 of the Complaints and Compensation Policy. Detailed EIA undertaken as part of policy review 2020. See customer care and access to services policy |
| 3.2          | Residents must be able to raise their complaints in any way and with any member of staff. All staff must be aware of the complaints process and be able to pass details of the complaint to the appropriate person within the landlord.   | Yes            | All staff aware of complaints process. Process set out in our housing management script  |
| 3.3          | High volumes of complaints must not be seen as a negative, as they can be indicative of a well-publicised and accessible complaints process. Low complaint volumes are potentially a sign that residents are unable to complain.  | Yes            | Complaints are promoted on our website, service standards, in our annual report, reception, via our surveys and social media   |
| 3.4          | Landlords must make their complaint policy available in a clear and accessible format for all residents. This will detail the two stage process, what will happen at each stage, and the  | Yes            | Complaints and compensation policy is available on website. Policy can be formatted in any way the customer requests.  |

|     |  |     |  |
|     | timeframes for responding. The policy must also be published on the landlord's website.  |     |  |
| 3.5 | The policy must explain how the landlord will publicise details of the complaints policy, including information about the Ombudsman and this Code.                                       | Yes | Section 4.1.4, 4.1.5. Section 6.0. Section 10.4 of complaints and compensation policy  |
| 3.6 | Landlords must give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord. | Yes | 5.3.1 complaints and compensation Policy   |
| 3.7 | Landlords must provide residents with information on their right to access the Ombudsman service and how the individual can engage with the Ombudsman about their complaint.             | Yes | Promoted within all complaint correspondence, service standard and Annual Report and Annual Report Summary (summary being sent to all residents).Contact details and the Complaint Handling Code are also included on our website. |

Section 4 - Complaint handling staff

| Code section | Code requirement   | Comply: Yes/No | Evidence, commentary and any explanations  |
|--------------|--|----------------|--|
| 4.1          | Landlords must have a person or team assigned to take responsibility for complaint handling, including liaison with the Ombudsman and ensuring complaints are reported to the governing body (or equivalent). This Code will refer to that person or team as the 'complaints officer'. This role may be in addition to other duties. | Yes            | The Customer Insight Team are responsible for complaint handling. 5.7.6 complaints and compensation policy |
| 4.2          | The complaints officer must have access to staff at all levels to facilitate the prompt resolution of complaints. They must also have the authority  | Yes            | All managers and Heads of Service are trained in undertaking complaint investigation                       |

|     | and autonomy to act to resolve disputes promptly and fairly  |     | Managers have the autonomy to resolve complaints. In addition a weekly complaints meeting is held with the Directors and Heads of Service from the operational teams alongside the Customer Insight Manger and Head of Customer Experience. 5.7.6 complaints and compensation policy |
| 4.3 | Landlords are expected to prioritise complaint handling and a culture of learning from complaints. All relevant staff must be suitably trained in the importance of complaint handling. It is important that complaints are seen as a core service and must be resourced to handle complaints effectively. | Yes | All managers and Heads of Service are trained in undertaking complaint investigation Weekly meetings with Heads of Service and Directors to keep a focus on resolving and learning from complaints   |

Section 5 - Complaint handling principles

| Code section | Code requirement  | Comply: Yes/No | Evidence, commentary and any explanations   |
|--------------|---|----------------|---|
| 5.1          | Landlords must have a single policy in place for dealing with complaints covered by this Code. Residents must not be treated differently if they complain.  | Yes            | Complaints and Compensation Policy.   |
| 5.2          | The early and local resolution of issues between landlords and residents is key to effective complaint handling. It is not appropriate to have extra named stages (such as 'stage 0' or 'informal complaint') as this causes unnecessary confusion.                               | Yes            | A two stage process is clearly laid out in the policy, along with an explanation of the difference between a complaint and a service request. |
| 5.3          | A process with more than two stages is not acceptable under any circumstances as this will make the complaint process unduly long and delay access to the Ombudsman.  | Yes            | The two stage process is clearly laid out in the complaints and compensation policy.  |
| 5.4          | Where a landlord's complaint response is handled by a third party (e.g. a contractor or independent adjudicator) at any stage, it must form part of the two stage complaints process set out in this Code. Residents must not be expected to go through two complaints processes. | Yes            | bdht are responsible to investigate all complaints internally regardless if they are about a third party.                                     |
| 5.5          | Landlords are responsible for ensuring that any third parties handle complaints in line with the Code.  | Yes            | bdht are responsible for investigating all complaint internally regardless of if they are about a third party.                                |

| 5.6 | When a complaint is logged at Stage 1 or escalated to Stage 2, landlords must set out their understanding of the complaint and the outcomes the resident is seeking. The Code will refer to this as “the complaint definition”. If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification.  | Yes | Clearly set out in the complaint acknowledgement letters for both stages.Section 6.2 complaint procedure   |
| 5.7 | When a complaint is acknowledged at either stage, landlords must be clear which aspects of the complaint they are, and are not, responsible for and clarify any areas where this is not clear   | Yes | Clearly set out in the complaint acknowledgement letters for both stagesIn addition Investigating manager will clarify before completing the investigation they have understood the complaint in full. |
| 5.8 | At each stage of the complaints process, complaint handlers must:a. deal with complaints on their merits, act independently, and have an open mind;b. give the resident a fair chance to set out their position;c. take measures to address any actual or perceived conflict of interest; andd. consider all relevant information and evidence carefully. | Yes | Investigating managers investigations reviewed by their manager, the Customer Insight Manager or a Head of Service to ensure compliance.   |
| 5.9 | Where a response to a complaint will fall outside the timescales set out in this Code, the landlord must agree with the resident suitable intervals for keeping them informed about their complaint.  | Yes | 5.8.5 complaints and compensation policy   |

| 5.10 | Landlords must make reasonable adjustments for residents where appropriate under the Equality Act 2010. Landlords must keep a record of any reasonable adjustments agreed, as well as a record of any disabilities a resident has disclosed. Any agreed reasonable adjustments must be kept under active review. | Yes | Set out in service standards, measured via KPIs and monitored by Resident's Scrutiny Panel (reporting 6 monthly to Board by exception) Customer care and access to services policy sets out how to manage reasonable adjustments Housing management system shows any adjustments needed to services |
| 5.11 | Landlords must not refuse to escalate a complaint through all stages of the complaints procedure unless it has valid reasons to do so. Landlords must clearly set out these reasons, and they must comply with the provisions set out in section 2 of this Code.   | Yes | Policy amended so that reasons for declining to escalate align with exclusions at para 5.6 Complaints and compensation Policy 5.8.8 and 5.7.7  |
| 5.12 | A full record must be kept of the complaint, and the outcomes at each stage. This must include the original complaint and the date received, all correspondence with the resident, correspondence with other parties, and any relevant supporting documentation such as reports or surveys.                      | Yes | All complaint records are managed via the QL Housing Management System   |

| 5.13 | Landlords must have processes in place to ensure a complaint can be remedied at any stage of its complaints process. Landlords must ensure appropriate remedies can be provided at any stage of the complaints process without the need for escalation.                 | Yes | 5.9 complaints and compensation policy                                     |
| 5.14 | Landlords must have policies and procedures in place for managing unacceptable behaviour from residents and/or their representatives. Landlords must be able to evidence reasons for putting any restrictions in place and must keep restrictions under regular review. | Yes | Unacceptable Behaviour Policy in place                                     |
| 5.15 | Any restrictions placed on contact due to unacceptable behaviour must be proportionate and demonstrate regard for the provisions of the Equality Act 2010.  | Yes | Unacceptable Behaviour Policy in place and refers to the Equality Act 2010 |
